Is this a loan?

▶ No, this is not a financing or lending product. That's why we don't need credit checks, applications, or approvals!

Can I split payments across multiple cards?

▶ Yes. You can set up 2 separate installment plans linked to different credit cards to cover the full amount.

What cards can I use?

▶ We accept Mastercard and Visa credit cards.

Can I pay off my plan early?

▶ Yes. This option is always available on the Installments portal, or you can contact customer care for assistance.

Do I ever have to pay full interest charges on my purchase?

▶ No. When you make a purchase with QuickFee Installments, you will only be charged for 1/4 the total each month. The balance is reserved on your credit limit and interest rates will not apply.

Will this affect my credit score?

▶ There is no impact on your credit score: Your bank just sees the individual installment charges each month. If one of the payments is declined, there is still no effect on credit rating.
